

Public Lecture Series 2018

Understanding Mental Health

Venue: School of Nursing and Human Sciences, DCU

Time: 7-8pm

Fee: Free entry

(donations discretionary, all proceeds to mental health charities)

28 th March	Listening to Prozac Revisited: Antidepressants in contemporary society	Dr. Mark Philbin
4 th April	Coming to understand self-injury	Karl Tooher
11 th April	What to do when things are difficult at home: responding to the problem of domestic abuse.	Dr. Melissa Corbally
18 th April	Men's mental health	Michael Mc Keon
25 th April	'What does patient and family participation mean in mental health services'	Lucy Whiston
2 nd May	Merging the person and the illness; growing up and living with chronic illness	Dr. Siobhan Mc Dermott
9 th May	"From Tuskegee to Nuremberg: how past unethical procedures shaped current mental health research and practice"	Dr. Unai Diaz-Orueta
16 th May	Making Sense of Life Stories	Dr. Briege Casey