

Location

EVE Plantmarket is located approximately 6km past Swords at Blakes Cross on the R132 (Swords—Balbriggan Road).

The Centre is a short distance from the bus stop and is serviced by the number 33/33a Dublin Bus and the 101 bus from Drogheda.

Training allowance

You will receive a weekly allowance as per DDLETB Training allowances (Equivalent to your Disability/Social Welfare Allowance). These allowances will not affect your additional Social Welfare/Health Service benefits, if applicable. In addition each learner receives a training bonus based on attendance and travel allowance where applicable.

General Information

Our service is catered towards individuals who have experienced mental health difficulties and have the potential to achieve employment and/or progress to further training.

Suitable candidates are individuals who are capable of meeting the training outcomes and have the potential to develop personal practical skills through training. Candidates must be 18 years or over.

Meals are provided free of charge. Personal development and healthy & wellbeing are incorporated into all programmes. We offer/promote quit smoking programmes in centre.

On completion of training, it is expected that learners will have progressed to one or a combination of the following options:

- To the employment market.
- Progression to mainstream training/education.
- Progression within specialised training.

A Training Opportunity For You

EVE Plantmarket is a programme in the HSE and is contracted by DDLETB (Dublin Dun Laoghaire Education Training Board) to deliver vocational training in a specialist training environment. We cater to people who have experience of mental health difficulties.

Course Objectives

The courses focus on helping learners set goals and work towards achieving them, gain QQI certification, obtain work experience, community integration and to promote independence, self-advocacy and valuable outcomes at the end of their training time.

The courses will provide learners with a QQI qualification and the essential skills to achieve employment and/or progress to further education.

All programmes adhere to stress free learning principals, catering to individual needs, greater time allocation to complete modules. Less exams and more emphasis on portfolio and project work.

Social outings and trips are built in to all courses and a Personal Development programme is delivered once a week.

The training hours are:

Monday-Thursday: 9.00am-4.00pm

Friday: 9.00am-1.30pm

Employability Skills

→ Is this for me?

All modules are portfolio based, with less stress on the learner and more emphasis on individual development.

Horticulture

→ Is this for me?

This course will suit individuals who have an interest in gardening or horticulture. The majority of modules involved are broken down: 20% theory and 80% practical based.

Retail Practice

→ Is this for me?

This is ideal for someone who wants to up skill or retrain within retail. QQI Level 5 is the same standard as Leaving Cert. If you are someone who has an interest in retail or business this course is for you.
